Goodmesh Concours 2023: Celebrating Full Moon in Multidisciplinary Art

Goodmesh Concours, the first multidisciplinary art competition of its kind, is excited to announce its fourth edition – Full Moon, for 2023. This year's competition invites participants to combine music with another art form to explore the theme of Full Moon artistically, offering limitless creative opportunities for performers.

Full Moon, a powerful symbol covered in mystery and legend, represents balance, completion, and fulfillment, and is traditionally associated with female energy and fertility. It inspires emotional release, self-discovery, and growth, encouraging individuals to tap into their intuition and create change.

The Goodmesh Concours 2023 offers applicants an opportunity to showcase their talent in a multidisciplinary performance, and win prizes that include monetary rewards, professional video recording, photoshoots, live performance opportunities, and international press exposure.

The competition will proceed in multiple stages, starting with the first round application deadline of 17th September 2023, where applicants will submit a 2-3 minute video presentation of their Full Moon performance. The jury will select 10 semi-finalists by 1st October 2023, who will then submit the full-length performance of their concept by 28th October 2023. The jury will select five finalists on 1st November 2023, who will perform their submitted videos live on stage in the Netherlands for a chance to win the prizes.

The Goodmesh Concours 2023 is open to musicians who collaborate with non-music art forms, such as visual art, dance, theater, literature, graphic art, or architecture. Participants must be 18+ years (or minors represented by legal guardians) and collaborate with a non-music art form.

Goodmesh aims to find artists who are not afraid to take creative risks and challenge today's art industry, while celebrating collaboration between artists from different fields. More information on terms and conditions can be found on the Goodmesh Concours website.

Goodmesh Concours 2023 is a must-attend event for all multidisciplinary art enthusiasts. Don't miss your chance to showcase your talent on a global stage and win amazing prizes. Apply now and let your creativity flow.
